

Rep. Dominic LaRiccia
District 169

Biography

Dominic LaRiccia is 48 years old and a lifelong resident of Douglas and Coffee counties, where he resides with the loves of his life and wife, Karrie, and three children: Joshua, Luke and Olivia.

Dominic is co-owner of Sunbelt Termite and Pest Control, which serves more than 30 counties in South Georgia.

He has also served for 14 years as an active member, past president and secretary of the Douglas Exchange Club, where he currently serves as chairman for the Exchange Club's July 4th Freedom Fest and Fireworks Display.

Dominic has served on various boards, such as the Douglas Coffee County Recreation Department, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and on the operating committee of the First Academy Christian School at First Baptist Church of Douglas, where he is also a member, deacon and 9th Grade Sunday School teacher.

On November 4, 2014, Dominic was elected to the Georgia House of Representatives' House District 169, which is comprised of Bacon, Coffee and Jeff Davis counties.